ARTHUR H. VANDENBERG
for U. S. SENATOR

YOU HAVE A VOTE!
You have a vote. It is the one vote in all the country that you can dedicate certainly and surely to the protection and preservation of your individual rights. There are votes all around you. This one may be influenced by a job, that one by the promise of a job, another by a bribe just taken. Yours is the one vote among them that you can follow in the privacy of an election booth and cast for the protection of your freedom and liberty.—West Virginia News.

"THE ARCH ENEMY OF AMERICA"
"Constitutional government provides protection of life and liberty. The arch enemy of America is the man who, acting for the people, takes away any of the constitutional rights of the people."
"The constitution provides a way to amend its provisions. It was never intended that these should be set aside by mere legislative acts or by manifestoes of the chief Executive."

HE MADE GOVERNMENT HIS BUSINESS AND HE MADE GOOD
Frank Fitzgerald's Career One of Steady Advancement Through Years

SOME ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF THE NEW DEAL
There are some of the accomplishments of the New Deal—things never before considered so bad, which have diminished from American life:
Opportunity—Business is practically closed to pioneers.
Character—Banks no longer permitted to consider it.
Plenty—Plowed under and food unused into fertilizer.
Self-Respect—Men no longer encouraged to save it.
Contracts—Made scraps of paper by light of night.
Charity—Destroyed by greed for graft.
Hope—Made an illusion.
Faith—Also plowed under.

Return Maurice Post to the Legislature
Maurice Post, state representative from the third district, was a Sparta visitor Tuesday. He has served one term in the legislature and is again a candidate on the Republican ticket for re-election for the same office.
Mr. Post has always been a resident of this district. He was born in Plainfield Township in 1881. In 1909 he moved to his present farm in Algoma Township.
He has always been an active farmer and dairyman, and is an active member of the grange, farm bureau, and other community organizations.
In 1919 Mr. Post was elected supervisor of Algoma Township which position he held for several years without opposition.
In 1930 Mr. Post served as chairman of the Kent County board of supervisors.
During his term in the legislature he made many friends throughout the district because of the consideration he has given their interests.
We are hopeful that he may be able to continue in Lansing the same splendid record he has so ably established for himself in county and state politics.
Rumors persist that the New Deal is getting ready to take over the railroads. Coordinator Eastman says it will cost $21,000,000,000. Can we believe that the New Dealers are so devoid of economic sense as to print greenbacks in payment for the roads? What has been going on, economically leads us to answer "yes."

SENATOR VANDENBERG BECOMES A NATIONAL LEADER
Grand Rapids Man Has Fine Record of Accomplishments in Senate

Although Senator Vandenberg has been in the Senate only seven years, he has moved forward to a position of such prestige and influence that he became the unanimous choice of his Republican colleagues for the chief Senate honor—president pro tempore—and also is acting as chairman of the Republican Senatorial Legislative Committee. This prestige and influence are of tremendous aid to all of the people of the state of Michigan.
During his service at Washington, Senator Vandenberg has met every Michigan request for cooperation and assistance without respect to politics and has served Michigan Democrats quite as faithfully as he has served Michigan Republicans in the capitol. Thus all the people of Michigan are the beneficiaries of the prestige and influence referred to in Paragraph 1.
Senator Vandenberg was the author of the so-called "Vandenberg Amendment" to the Glass-Steagall bill, which instituted Federal Bank deposit insurance last January. He is recognized as the leading spokesman for bank deposit insurance in congress. Chairman Crowley (Democrat) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation refers to him as the "father of bank deposit insurance." The final battle for the permanent retention of bank deposit insurance will be fought in the next congress.
Senator Vandenberg is co-author with Senator Nye of North Dakota of the so-called Nye-Vandenberg Resolution under which the present sensational munitions inquiry is being held in Washington. Vice President Garner appointed Senator Vandenberg a member of the investigating committee and he is carrying a large share of the responsibility. It is the greatest and most practical peace movement ever undertaken. It is the culmination of the American Legion's prayer "to equalize the burdens and take the profits out of war." The committee has recessed until after election. Senator Vandenberg will be withdrawn from this tremendous labor unless he is re-elected. He is the only member of the investigating committee who is running this year.
Senator Vandenberg is known throughout the country as beet sugar's "first friend." The life of the great Michigan sugar industry is absolutely dependable upon Federal legislation. It is particularly jeopardized by the attitudes of the "Brain Trust" in this administration. Senator Vandenberg is credited with large responsibility for saving the situation in the last congress.
Senator Vandenberg is unanimously endorsed for re-election by all of the 21 Brotherhoods. This action is largely based upon his enthusiastic support of retirement pensions legislation which he believes to be essential in all American industry. The action of the Railroad Brotherhoods in respect to candidates is the acid test upon friendly attitudes toward righteous labor legislation.
Senator Vandenberg is opposed to government price-fixing, which soon will be responsible for an insufferably high cost of living. He is equally opposed to the repeal of anti-trust laws under NRA, which are crushing small business and encouraging monopoly.

Keep Mapes in Congress

Carl E. Mapes
An Experienced and Capable Congressman
In his long service in Congress Mr. Mapes has steadfastly adhered to the old-fashioned notion that the chief concern of the government is the welfare of all of the people.
His adherence to this principle, his intelligent grasp of public questions and his diligent attention to official duties has given him a prominent and influential position in Congress.
The press of the country and prominent members of both political parties have publicly spoken in highly complimentary terms of Mr. Mapes' influence in Congress and of his fairness and non-partisanship in supporting inoperative legislation regardless of which party proposed it.
Mr. Mapes is a worker in the full meaning of the word. His application to his task during his years of honorable service, combined with his moral integrity and honor, has won for him a high place in the National Congress where he commands the respect of his colleagues without regard to party affiliation. Mr. Mapes is doing more than any other member in the House to secure the passage of a workable bill to control the stock market.
As one observer familiar with Mr. Mapes' record says: "He wastes no time in talk but has always been on the job one hundred per cent. He has voted for and against the administration as he has believed the right. He has steadily supported legislation for the veterans. He has been rigidly in favor of all measures of economy. In fact it is hard to find where he has slipped at all. As a result there is little upon which to base a campaign against him. The indications are that he will be re-elected by a fine majority."
Mr. Mapes occupies an outstanding position in the Congress of the United States. He has consistently supported and fought for constructive progressive legislation. He is everywhere recognized as a capable and industrious legislator. The best interests of the people of the fifth district will be promoted by his re-election to Congress.

AFTER 18 MONTHS OF DEMOCRATIC RULE
—Submitted by MAURICE E. POST

Republicans Can Lead The Way
This country of ours was not made by rulers or governments, but by a self-reliant people. The history of the United States is not the story of the accomplishments of government. It's the tale of the creative genius of a nation. This looking to government for salvation is a new-fangled doctrine for Americans.
The strength of this Republic lies not so much in the virtue of its rulers as in the common sense of its people. The time has come to apply some of that common sense.
We must make it our business to understand the situation and the nature of the problem. We must see to it that our neighbors do. When enough people do, Washington will begin to. We must think unselfishly, in terms of the common good, weighing each measure by that standard alone. It's not a question of what's good or bad for you and me, or for this group or that group, but what's for the good of all. Let's think for the common good, plan for the common good, organize for the common good. There is a way out. If the government cannot find it, let the people lead the way.—Ogden Mills.

Michigan Women Aiding in G.O.P. Victory
The Republican women of Michigan are taking a more active part in the present campaign than they ever have in the past, according to Mrs. C. L. Barber, vice chairman of the Republican State Central Committee.
"Republican women are keenly alive this year to the part their activities will play in making sure the election of the complete Republican ticket from Senator Vandenberg to county coroner," Mrs. Barber asserted. "Not only do they realize what their efforts are accomplishing but they are willing and anxious to perform the inconspicuous little services which will make victory doubly sure."
Hundreds of Republican women's meetings are being held in every county in the state and Republican policies are discussed and efforts made to acquaint the women of every community with the qualifications of every Republican candidate on the national, state, legislative and county tickets.
"Women this year also are systematically working and are making certain that shut-ins are given an opportunity to secure absent voters' ballots so that they may voice their choice in the most important election in recent years."
"From reports reaching me I am convinced that more women will vote next month than ever before and the big majority of the women voters will cast 'straight Republican' ballots."
Secretary of the Treasury Morganthau says the president's program has increased the public debt nine billions of dollars in two years. Nine billion dollars means about $60 for every man, woman and child in the United States. Thus a family of five now owes $300 more WHICH IT WILL HAVE TO PAY SOONER OR LATER. The interest at three per cent on the nine billions means an extra tax of two dollars a year on every man, woman and child.

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 240): "Mortals move onward towards good or evil as time glides on. If mortals are not progressive, past failures will be repeated until all wrong work is effaced or rectified. . . No life is complete unless the spiritual nature is touched by God, the Holy Spirit, awakened, resurrected into newness of life, and nourished by divine grace.
