BALLARD NEWS

Pupils of the Ballard school delighted a large audience Friday evening with their impersonations of celebrated stars: Lawrence Bowman as Kate Smith, Joe Fraser as Rudy Vallee and Rock Ebers as Tom Mix with his famous horse Tony (Don Ehlert and Carl Waldheer) were high lights of the program.

Daniel Hinebeck and Gordon Church singing "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree" and dressed in the gay ninety period, proved a very entertaining number.

Mary Waldheer in behalf of the 4-H club spoke of their appreciation of the work done by the leaders, Mrs. Gass, Mrs. Jones and A. Church and gifts were presented to them by Mrs. Walter Ebers.

The girls efforts to raise money was very successful and proceeds were used to buy three new balls and a bat for outdoor recreation.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Saxton of Detroit were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDermott over the week-end.

Miss Norma Hinebeck spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents.

Dorothy Schindler has returned after spending two weeks with relatives in Lansing.

The fruit blossoms will be at their best this week. Don't miss a drive through Peach Ridge.

Scripture For May 5, 1938

Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance; for ye were made sorry after a godly manner that ye might receive damage by us in nothing. For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of; but the

YOUR COMPETITOR
A little lack of kindly thought
And words of courtesy unsaid
Are worms that eat a business heart
And leave it numbered with the dead;

Your worst competitor is yourself,
When you serve yourself and then
are done;
Service to others ignored and forgot,
Counting on nothing but self and
your own;

So don't complain of your neighbor's luck
If customers leave and go his way.
If you want to be greedy and snobbish
and proud,
By paying the cost of them all—
you may. —F. M. H.
