Long Illness Takes Algoma Ne Mrs. Edith Anthony

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the McKinley Chapel in Grant for Mrs. Edith M. Anthony, aged 79, former Trent resident, who passed away Thursday morning, January 21 at the Sparta Nursing Home after a long illness.

She was born Edith M. Pears on May 28, 1885, in Scarborough, England, and married William Anthony at Pentwater in 1914. Mr. Anthony passed away in 1935.

Mrs. Anthony lived in Mason County near Pentwater until moving to Trent (Casnovia Township) in 1927 and has lived with her daughter, Mrs. Everett Shue, 1705 Ten Mile Road, Sparta, since 1950.

Besides her daughter, Mrs. Anthony is survived by three grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Gary A. Garnett of St. Matthews Episcopal Church officiated at the services. Burial in Hill-ton Cemetery.

Open House Sat. For Newlyweds

An open house and wedding reception will be held between 6:30 and 9:30 p.m. on Saturday evening, January 30, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon C. Atkins, Algoma and 13-Mile Road, in honor of Miss Joanne Bitely and Gerald Bowers following their marriage that afternoon.

No invitations are being sent, but friends and relatives of the couple are cordially invited to attend.

Miss Bitely is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bitely of Bailey. Jerry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon (Jack) Bowers and a graduate of Cedar Springs High School.

SPARTA JV'S DEFEAT COMSTOCK PARK 58-45

By Jack Carlson

The Sparta High Junior varsity basketball team won their 8th game Friday night by defeating Comstock Park Panthers for the second time this year by a score of 58 to 45.

The Spartans took a commanding lead at the end of the first quarter, 17 to 6, and at the end of the half went to the locker room with a comfortable 38 to 21 lead.

Gordy Cook was the leading scorer for the Spartans as he racked up 15 points. Chuck Brown and Jim Tuinstra each had 12 tallies. High scorer for the beaten Panthers was T. Mol who had 20.

The local j.v.'s hit pretty well at the free throw line as they made 14 of 28.

KENT CITY - CASNOVIA METHODIST YOUTH MEET

Culminating a unit on discipline, the Casnovia-Kent City Methodist Youth Fellowship prepared a supper in the Kent City Methodist Church dining room on Sunday evening, January 24. Their counselors, Mrs. Durwood Holmes and Rev. Charles McNary and their families were guests.

Sixteen young people participated in the planning and preparation of the meal. The committee work was done entirely by the young people. Following the meal a period of evaluation was held. The venture in self-discipline was pronounced a success.

Three members of this group plan to attend the Mid-Winter Youth Conference in Grand Rapids on January 29-31. They are Janice Kennamer, Lester Johnson and Tom Holmes.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. William Stevens, jr., are receiving congratulations on the birth of their eighth child, a daughter named Dorsey Lee, on January 19. The infant weighed 8 lb. 6 oz.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank my many friends for the lovely cards and flowers I received during my stay in the hospital.

Allen Myers Taken By Death Jan. 21

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Hessel Chapel for Allen L. Myers, aged 65, of 42 Webber St., White Cloud, who passed away Thursday, January 21, at the Veterans Hospital in Ann Arbor, following a six months illness.

Mr. Myers was born in Sparta and lived in Kent City until three years ago. He was a retired night watchman for the Imperial Furniture Company.

He was a veteran of World War I and a member of the Disabled Veterans of Fremont Post 48 and VFW. He was married to the former Mildred Wine in August of 1943 who survives him.

Also surviving are five sons, Albert of Jackson, Jerome of Jackson, David, John, and Michael all at home; seven daughters, Mrs. Charles (Mae) Anderson of Lowell, Mrs. James (Martha Lou) Raap of Sparta, Mrs. James (Karen) Belknap of Kent City; Mrs. Terry (Nancy) Arnold of White Cloud; Patricia, Jackie, and Lorie at home; seven grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; three brothers, Thomas Myers of Sparta and Frederick Fry of Grand Rapids; and two sisters, Mrs. Charles Dutcher of White Cloud and Mrs. Martha Carlson of Grand Rapids.

The Rev. Glen J. Farnham officiated at the services with burial in Alpine Cemetery.

Comstock Park Upsets Spartan Cagers 51-33

The Spartan varsity cagers slipped to fifth place in the Tri-River League last Friday night after being upset by the Comstock Park Panthers in their gymnasium by a score of 51-33.

Sparta led 8-6 and 21-17 after the first two periods, but Comstock's free throwing efficient pulled the host team out in front in the third quarter as the Panthers made 12 charity shots without a miss and pulled out in front by a 34-28 margin.

Brian McCallum, Phil Bayes, Bing Heethuis and Alan Vandermeer paced Sparta's scoring with six points each. Brad McLouth added 19 points for Comstock Park.

Spartan Frosh Cagers Win 49-33

By Doug Heugel

The Spartan freshmen cagers won their fifth league game in six starts last Friday afternoon by downing Comstock Park 49 to 33. Their only loss of the season came a week ago at Lowell.

The freshmen led the Panthers all the way and at the end of the quarters the scoreboard read: (1) 11-5, (2) 23-13, (3) 35-23, and the final (4) 49-33.

Jim Hubert led the cagers for Sparta with 11 points followed by "Moose" Losey and Paul Johnson with 10 each, Larry Andrus 8, and Dave D'Amour with 7. Andrus also gathered 19 rebounds.

The freshmen will play Belding on Friday afternoon January 29, after school, in the Sparta gym.

USHERS CLUB

The Ushers Club of the Holy Family Parish of Sparta will hold a Card Party commencing at 8 p.m. on Sunday evening, January 31, in the Parish Hall. Prizes and refreshments. Everyone is invited.

continued because of the lack of participation.

A Trio consisting of Mr. Burny Veenstra, his son David, and Shirley Visser will present the special music at The Trinity Christian Reformed Church, Sparta, Sunday evening. The pastor Henry Hoekstra will speak on "Relatives of Jesus" Matt. 12:50.

Mr. Veenstra will play a xylophone and his son David will play his saxophone while Shirley Visser will accompany them on the piano.

The group meet at the American Legion Hall, 305 So. State Street. The service begins at 6:50 p.m. Everyone is welcome.

Richard Maycroft Joins Faculty at Sparta Central

Richard Maycroft, a former Sparta High School student, was added to the faculty of the Sparta Central sixth grade this week and is assuming the teaching duties of Mr. Glenn Haan who has returned to college for further study. Mr. Maycroft is a 1959 graduate of Sparta and received his Bachelor of Science degree from Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo on January 23 of this year.

Mr. Maycroft is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Maycroft of Sparta, and is married to the former Dale Vandermeer of Sparta. They have two children, Pam age 2 and Ricky, two months old. They are presently living in Grand Rapids.

Three Michigan State University students are completing work on a 10-week practice teaching program in the Sparta Area Schools. They are:

Miss Roberta Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Black of N. Union St., Sparta, who is working with Miss Maxine Garland in the high school English department.

Miss Diane Smith of Muskegon is receiving her teaching experience in Mr. James Dickey's social studies classes.

Miss Susan Turpen of Fruitport is getting her "in classroom teaching training" with Miss Joanne Furhof in the Sparta Elementary sixth grade.

Wrestling Clinic Set at Halftime of Belding-Sparta Tilt

A wrestling clinic will be demonstrated during the half-time of the Sparta-Belding basketball game on Friday night, January 29, at the Sparta gym. Coach Don Cohn and his wrestling squad will show how points are awarded and explain various wrestling positions.

The Spartans received a much-needed "shot-in-the-arm" on Monday night by defeating Ravenna musclemen 35 to 11. Although the Spartans have failed to finish in the upper half of the Tri-River League, they show great promise of building a team to be feared in the next couple of years as the Spartans grow in experience. Of the thirty boys out for wrestling, many are sophomores and freshmen.

In Monday's meet at Ravenna, the following varsity men pinned their opponents: John Blaauw, capt., Dan Preston, Ted May, and Bruce Bitley. Winning by decision were Larry Goodfellow, Leon Kik, Ron Middleton, Steve Schmidt, Jerry May, Rich Knaut, Bill Dauser and Pete Childress lost their matches. Ken Traxler, a member of the varsity team, was ill and unable to compete.

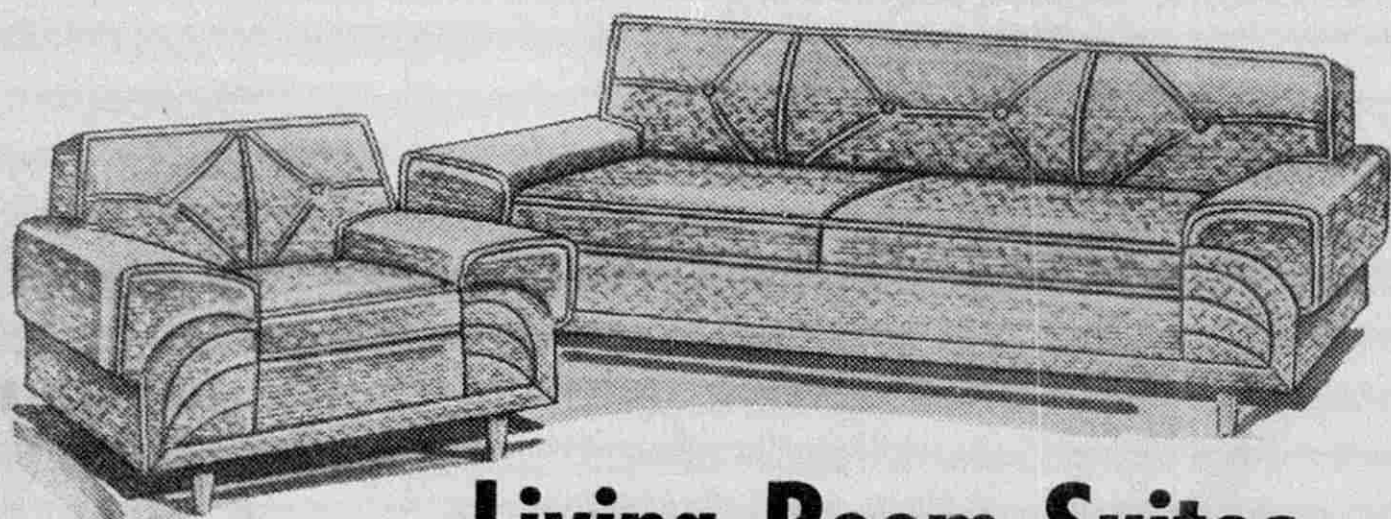

The Spartans will meet Cedar Springs Wednesday night January 27 at Sparta.
